Having for a long time suffered from the effects of a horrible blood trouble, and after resorting to medical skill and other remedies without benefit, I tried "A. B. C. Alterative," and I have been entirely restored, and it affords me pleasure to attest its virtues. It is certainly a very great tonic and alterative, and I recommend any suffering from blood trouble, to try it.

Turned out of Church

A sensation was caused by the forcible ejection Tuesday evening from the Methodist Episcopal Church at Cliffwood, N. J., of the pastor, young Mr. Chew, by three of the trustees, and by the exposure of certain alleged acts of a scandalous nature on the part of the pastor that had followed. The trustees who took the violent measures against Pastor Chew are Messrs. Peter M. Barber, Hendrick Van Claf and Wm. Metzger.
When Mr. Chew appeared at the church to conduct services they ordered him to quit the sacred edifice and never put his foot within its doors again. He tried to argue the case with them, when, without more ado, they seized him and threw him bodily out of the church. Mr. Chew, a bright-looking man of 30, moved to Cliffwood last March with his young wife. His preaching was listened to with great interest. He had not been there long, however, before he began to inject politics into his sermons, which created some unfavorable comment. Then rumors were circulated regarding his attentions to handsome young ladies, and recently a graver scandal got abroad. Mr. Chew became acquainted with Mrs. Carrie Armstrong, the young and beautiful wife of Alonzo Armstrong, and it is alleged that on one occasion while they were out driving, Pastor Chew attempted to kiss her, and made insulting proposals to her. She indignantly resented his conduct, but said nothing about it until a few days ago when he called at her home and after remaining to supper renewed his offensive familiarity, carrying it to a still more outrageous extreme. Then she ordered him from the house, and made the matter known to her husband. Pastor Chew calmly returned to his home, and the next day went on with the regular services at the church, praying for the conversion of the sinners. Several of the young ladies of Cliffwood and Jacksonville, it was found, had received similar insults from Pastor Chew. It also became public gossip that the young preacher had frequently visited beer saloons, and on several occasions had been seen in company with intoxicated men. Some of the most respectable people of the place declare that they would substantiate charges against Pastor Chew for maliciously insulting ladies upon the street, drunkenness or drinking, cursing and swearing and making promises that he never fulfilled.
Mrs. Chew's sister, Mattie Headley, tells a story of Pastor Chew's treatment of his wife to the effect that he is most cruel to her, and that his language about the house she has never heard surpassed by a rowdy upon the street. The Rev. Mr. Chew, when called upon, denied all the stories against him. He said he had been in Mrs. Armstrong's company, but denied ever using any indecent language.

Mr. Chew, besides preaching for $400 a year, works on the farm of Mr. Hillier and Eugene Emerson, where he gets a dollar a day, and at times his wife has assisted him at the farm work. It is said that Mr. Chew will be in action against the church officials for defamation of character and assault and battery.

TO SAVE IT FROM IDIOCY.—A feat, said to be unequalled in the annals of surgery in this country, was performed on Wednesday afternoon at the clinic of the Jefferson Medical College, by Dr. W. W. Keen, Professor of Surgery in that institution. The operation was performed on a female child 4 years old, and was necessary to prevent idiotcy. The disease is consequent on the non-growth of the bones of the skull, and therefore, of the brain. In medical circles the disease is known as microcephalus, and is very seldom met with. The patient was an apparently healthy child, with the physical development of any other of its age, the intellect, however, remaining stationary.
The intention was to remove a portion of the skull, thus giving room for the normal growth and healthy action of the brain.
After etherizing, Dr. Keen made an incision of four inches through the scalp, which was laid over. After trepanning the skull he cut through the parietal bone with his instruments, leaving the dura-mater untouched. A space of five inches long by half an inch wide was thus uncovered, giving sufficient room for growth.—Philadelphia

FITZHUGH LEE, President.

GLASGOW offers more inducements to investors than any other town in Virginia. Though only a few months old, the industries—secured, building and in operation—amounting to

$2,085,000

And yet a splendid margin is left investors to buy and realize handsomely in a few months. Her advantages are:

THREE RAILROADS.—The Shenandoah Valley Division of the Norfolk and Western and the James River and Lexington Divisions of the Chesapeake and Ohio.

TWO RIVERS.—the James and the North, furnishing magnificent water power already developed.

IRON ORE.—The finest specular and magnetic ores, having been used in furnaces for the past thirty years.

LIMESTONE AND CEMENT.—Both in abundance. Celebrated James River Cement now manufactured on city's property.

November 25th and 26th. Reduced Rates to Sale.

FARES REFUNDED TO PURCHASERS.

SALEM! SALEM!

GREAT SALE OF LOTS DECEMBER, 11 & 12,

—BY THE—

SALEM IMPROVEMENT COMPANY

TERMS—One-third cash; balance in one and two years.

These lots lie on principal business and residence streets. The property adjoins the old town and is surrounded by the lands of other strong companies. It is the most valuable property in Salem. The Norfolk and Western and the Dummy Line to Roanoke run through it and have their passenger stations on it. Streets have been graded and macadamized, and the town water system extended through them.

Salem has made more rapid and substantial progress in one year than any other city in Virginia; 318 houses have been built, about $1,000,000 spent in buildings and improvements, the population has doubled, and the business of the postoffice and telegraph office increased 500 per cent.

The Iron Furnace, the Factories in operation, in course of erection, and actually secured, will employ several thousand hands, and the present population will be doubled in another year. Negotiations are in progress to secure other large plants.

The Baltimore and Ohio and Roanoke and Southern will soon be built to Salem, making it an important railway centre.

Salem is bound soon to be a great iron and steel and general manufacturing and commercial city; and Salem and Roanoke, now rapidly growing together, will be the industrial centre of Virginia—the gateway to the great iron and coal region of Southwest Virginia.

For large, sure and quick profits, now is the time to invest in Salem, the "Queen City of the Southwest."
